Be ALERT, Be VIGILANT, exercise EXTREME CAUTION!

Circulation of FAKE social media messages on Telegram and other social media groups or entities

Mumbai, 3rd December 2022: Tata Mutual Fund would like to alert all its investors, distributors, brokers, Investment advisors, partners and public at large regarding the fraudulent Telegram and social media groups / entities that camouflage themselves as registered Mutual Funds or misuse the name of the mutual funds and falsely promise huge amount of returns against their investment. Recently, multiple social media groups/entities over Telegram and other social media channels have misused the Tata Mutual Fund logo, brand name and identities to misguide and cheat investors.

Tata Mutual Fund does not have any official Telegram handle/entities/groups and nor does it promise or misguide investors in any form on any social platforms about alleged or abnormal earnings or returns while investing in mutual funds.

In view of the proliferation of such activities on social media which are dubious in nature, we warn and strongly urge investors not to rely and act on any fraudulent social media account and to report those fraudulent groups on respective social media platforms and in case of any fraudulent channels on Telegram, investors are requested to report to abuse@telegram.org or write to us at service@tataamc.com
